

ΠΑΝΕΠΙΣΤΗΜΙΟ
ΘΕΣΣΑΛΙΑΣ

Brepols Publishers is a medium-sized international academic publisher, specializing in research for the Humanities. We publish historical sources and academic research in areas such as history, patristics, philology, archaeology, and art history, and our portfolio encompasses books, journals, and reference works, which are made available in both print and digital formats, and as traditional and open-access publications. Our broad range of publications are released under our different imprints: Brepols (history); Corpus Christianorum (text editions); Harvey Miller (art history); and BREPOLiS (online databases). Story Publishers (Ghent) caters to legal professionals with books and training.

Brepols reaches a global clientele consisting of specialized libraries, academic institutions, and individuals. Our publishing house has its headquarters in the historic Begijnhof of Turnhout (BE) and we also have an office in Thessaloniki (GR), together with colleagues in France, the UK, and the USA. More information can be found at www.brepols.net.

Paid Internship Thessaloniki (ESPA)

Supporting the development of digital applications in the Humanities

Brepols Publishers offers 350 euro to students (or recently graduated students) in the faculty of Humanities, Arts, Language & Literature. Our digital humanities internships are a unique opportunity for anyone who is passionate about developing their knowledge and skills using digital methods, practical skills and research to gain experience and obtain a stronger position on the job market. Students or recently graduated will have a front-row seat in the development of our renowned digital applications. They will closely work with our team of bibliographic editors to check metadata and assess the quality of our data extraction software. The traineeships is supported via the ESPA program.

Duration: minimum 4 months

Profile

Qualifications: a background in Philology, History, Philosophy, Languages and Literature, or other relevant departments in the Humanities.

Language skills: very good command English (written and spoken); knowledge of other European languages is advantageous.

Knowledge and experience: familiarity with academic citation styles.

Personal attributes:

- Ability to work accurately and methodically
- Effective teamwork skills.
- Editorial experience or proofreading skills are considered advantageous.

Workstation

The internship is located in our office in Thessaloniki.

Interested?

Please send your CV and letter of motivation to: chris.vandenborre@brepols.net